filled gap:

The screenshot shows a Microsoft Edge browser window displaying the Wikipedia article for Napoleon Franz Bonaparte. The article provides a detailed account of his life, from his birth in 1811 to his death in 1832. It includes a portrait of him as a child, painted by Thomas Lawrence in 1818/19. The browser interface includes a sidebar with a table of contents and a navigation bar at the bottom.

So, not a real mistake, a one month gap in the millennium list of a rather negligible head (fillable by use of google > wikipedia (itself)). However, dear eagles, we learned much more than this while finding the gap in french state head dynasties of ten centuries.

We learned to know the story of Marie Antoinette and cardinal Louis René de Rohan, e. g., who terminated the French absolute monarchy (lethal for it completely in the end of the day) and made a real collateral prey in our white head sea eagle sun rise (for celibates) hunt (precedent oriented history and law comparison of dormant vieux frère Jacques and big brother little Yankee).

We grabbed tricky dick, now wanted.

And we learned from this high profile mundane enemy precedent something about justified senate impeachments, well done!

I see you for the more detailed maneuver review at 9.00 in our barrack TT!
